AMD Culture

AMD Culture Motivates the World

Our culture is characterized by an indomitable will to succeed and prosper in one of the world's most challenging industries. We operate with the highest standards of honesty and responsibility — as individuals and as a corporation — to be a role model worldwide through our business practices, community involvement and environmental stewardship.

At the heart of our unique and strong culture is the belief that people are the ultimate source of our competitive advantage. We respect people, honor diversity and treat each other fairly. These values are the cornerstones of our culture and key to our ability to work successfully as a global team.

By living by these core values, each one of us helps to deliver on our promises to our customers, our shareholders, our community, and ourselves. We believe in working hard, having fun, and celebrating our successes — an attitude that ensures our enduring success. Explore the culture that inspires our team.
